Hell Bent

Outlier

Am I the key of fiction and heartache
And the pain is of no consequence
When I am hell bent
My walls are closin' inControlling me, controlling me
Is losing me, you're losing
Control of me, control of me
You're losingAm I awake the morning star
That brings me here since everything in me
Between Pluto and God, all is hell bent
My walls are closin' in, I feel the claimControlling me, controlling me
Is losing me, you're losing
Control of me, control of me
You're losing, you're losingControl of me, control of me
You're losing me then, oh
Controlling me, controlling me
YeahSaid, naked, broken my world closing
And I can't find myself or my way out, heyControlling me, controlling me
Controlling me, you're losing me
Said, oh, controlling me
Hell bent, my walls are closin' in
