Radial Angel

I'm feeling, secure as I warm my feet on the rug over, my eyes this rug becomes a wool now I'm finding, comfort in what is here today so sure, yet so wrong as this rug is pulled away as its pulled away on the cold floor, my bones begin to freeze now I'm empty, confused, filled with anxieties I'm broken, I'm depressed with no explanation given so strong but now weak I must, i must continue livingChorus: oh, just give it up to oh, you gotta give up to himyou are faithful and i know that you'll take care of me I have not reason to be, in this misery because i, i need you, cause i can't never do this alone or so what, because i know that you, you are there for me and you'll never ever ever leave me aloneChorus
