

Grace

Heather Maloney

She didn't know she was a leach
Didn't know until they protested and preached
She was mom, she was dad, she was all they ever had
She didn't know that she was a leach.

Queen of welfare she's been crowned
Didn't know she had such power in this town
They wanna stamp on her food stamps she don't need no free ride
And in the throne she was told she should take pride
Oh and in the throne she was told she should take pride.

Amazing
Grace
Your hands are cold but your body is warm

Amazing
Grace
Your eyes are icy, but your bed is warm
And you will weather the storm
Hey now, won't you.

Ah ah ah ahhhh

Didn't know she could be so bold
Protector of the garden, her gold.
didn't know that she had such might
Soft but pervasive morning light
She didn't know she could be so brave
Rough and standing ocean wave
Didn't know she could be so unafraid
Woven, strung and pretty like a braid

And when there's no one around she will let her hair down
She looks lost, but she's found
She looks lost, but she's found

Amazing
Grace
Your hands are cold, but your body is warm.

Amazing

Grace

Your look is icy, but your heart's on fire

And you don't know how you inspire

Hey now, do you?

And when there's no one around she will let her hair down

She didn't know she had such power in this town

A queen of welfare she's been crowned.

---

Lyrics submitted by Melissa Frazee.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>