Dress don't impress me
Ain't no love, your death won't affect me
How dare you? Think I fear you or won't retaliate
Nigga, bring it to me, I'll strike immediately I see the envy, you lust what I posses
Guns at my address await you
You slept, I'ma erase you, I don't hate you
I never gave you a reason, but fuck it, bring it You wanna, put my life in your hands like dice
I got money in the bank, you ain't stop
Your jealousy mixed up, appear more clear, strategy's more severe
I'm on your mind so much you see me in your mirror I'll crush you and won't hesitate to buck you
Can't rock me to sleep, I don't trust you
I'm not prey, I'ma fuck a predator
I'ma still be here while you're dead and gone These animals wild life, niggas wanna challenge me
Snake mothafuckas with guerrilla mentalities
Cats be spineless, to alkaline batteries
Enter the picture, and switch up anatomies You must've forgot, I got guns too
And sons who will take your miserable life from you
What the fuck you think if sleeping is a weakness amongst the illest
I hung with killers, slung with dealers, my gun the illest In the projects, the fully automated sterling
Will make your world end so fast
And shatter like a coke glass with too much heat
Too much beef is hard to digest, you can't defy death Your man can die next when I press the trigger
Direct shots'll hit you fatally, I play for keeps
Stay away from me, we not peoples, we not equal
When it's on, ends, there's not a sequel Life will leave you when I squeeze, duke
I know rage is blind but I'ma see you
It's only right, apologies to your only kin and lonely wife
'Cus you ain't coming home tonight These animals wild life, niggas wanna challenge me
Snake mothafuckas with guerrilla mentalities
Cats be spineless, to alkaline batteries
Enter the picture, and switch up anatomies Nothing sweeter than revenge, the vengeance is splendid
Your body extended, white chalk and forensics
I'm prepared, never scared, you the least of my fears
My niggas shed blood, your niggas shed tears I'm like a soldier, your life is over
I'ma strike like a cobra and smile like the joker
You a statistic, your shit all twisted
I unleash the beast without three sixes Wish we could've fixed it
Now I'm staring at your moralized picture
Streets cried with you but the beef died with you

You wanted war? I complied with cha, I got to choose now I'm the prince of the street for laying you down
I reign supreme, niggas never should've never came for me
It's over la, close your eyes, when you die it's on the rise
You got sent to God's kingdom for opposing mine
