Send In the Boys

Milburn

He had her down in the cellar
With a knife pointing at her throat
He wouldn't let her go
Oh, no, he wouldn't let her goShe kicked and screamed
Someone heard through the walls from next door
What's the crack? What's the score?
Next door neighbor gave a call, no one answeredSo the boys are coming
The boys are coming for youThey'll take you on a holiday
Maybe to the seaside, maybe they'll just give you away
They'll drop you off and say goodbyeYou're looking pretty dangerous
You're looking pretty dangerous tonight
And nobody knows just quite what you will do nextSo the boys are coming
The boys are coming for youCoppers came heavy handed
Closed the street and demanded us to stay at home today
Oh, you must stay at home todayCalm him down, reassure him
Leave the girl, this is stupid, hold your hands up
We'll get you through this, yeah, we'll get you through thisSo the boys are coming
The boys are coming for youThey'll take you on a holiday
Maybe to the seaside, maybe they'll just give you away
They'll drop you off and say goodbyeYou're looking pretty dangerous
You're looking pretty dangerous tonight
And nobody knows just quite what you will do nextSo the boys are coming
The boys are coming for you

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/