We Make Love Falling

Rainbirds

Don't you notice something different tonight
Look here, I took off all my clothes
And you may touch me anywhere you like
Oooh, everywhere you like meIf you are somebody different tonight
Than you were only yesterday
Please don't tell me, no, don't explain,
I get easily confused these days
Oooh, sometimes I even cryAnd now I found, that when I open my eyes
I fall and that's all I ever do
So if you touch me, if you move me now
Oooh, we make love, fallingWe make love, falling
We make love, falling
