To the Ends of the World

Caleb

You run
You run as far as you can run from love
You run
You fight
You fight love like a champion fights
You run
You fight
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
I run
I run as fast as I can run to love
I run
I fight for you
I fight til I die for you
Still you can't escape my heart
You can't escape my heart
Cause my heart runs
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
When your heart is broken
You try and run yet you hardly stand
And your knees are shaking
Your stride is breaking
Like you're running in the sand
And your pace is slowing
And your eyes they see no end
When I have you in my arms
I feel you in my arms
You'll know when love begins
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
To the ends of the world
You can't escape my heart
You can't escape my heart

I fight for you
I fight til I die for you
Still you can't escape my heart
You can't escape my heart
