I'm so dizzy,

did I bump my head somewhere?

Let's break up, those words keep circling me,

did I hear it wrong?

Wait, everything is falling into place now

You had your fun with me and now you shock me by saying you want to break up

After slowly thinking about it,

I can't live without you

If you're not here, I'm not here either,

all I'd do is just breathe

Should I be a man and let you go?

Should I let go of your tightly held hand?

Should I hug you goodbye?

But in the end, I couldn't do any of that

Just go home today,

I need a little time

I'm not in the right state of mind right now

I hoped this was all a lie,

I thought, after my tears dried

Anyway, you won't even care how hard it is for me
How can I be with another woman that's not you?
You can't even imagine how hard it is
I thought about the future with you But it's all wrong, I don't want to love another woman that's not you

After slowly thinking about it,
I can't live without you
If you're not here, I'm not here either,
all I do is just breathe
Should I be a man and let you go?
Should I let go of your tightly held hand?
Should I hug you goodbye?
But in the end, I couldn't do any of that

Your eyes are too steady for me to say that I'll be better There's just no way, I can't avoid this, never never

After slowly thinking about it,
I can't live without you
If you're not here, I'm not here either,
all I do is just breathe
Should I be a man and let you go?
Should I let go of your tightly held hand?
Should I hug you goodbye?
But in the end, I couldn't do any of that
