

Broken Wings

Four Nights Gone

Ive been weak and Ive been strong, Ive been through the darkest storms.Screwing up is all I do, was I born to lose?

Put my pain in to rhymes, so I hope that I can find

A peace inside of my mind, will I ever be alright?Push me to the ground, Left me here to drown, Brought down to my core, I dont want to be here anymoreI just dont know anymore, whats even worth fighting for

Cloudy on a sunny day, sky around me turns grey

How I long to be free, from the dark inside me

Theres no reason to hurt inside, I just want to be alright!If fucking takes such practice I feel as if Im well-rehearsed
