Don't You Trust Me

2Pac

I ain't got time for this man I'm outYou should stop for awhile, you will find me standing by

(Don't you trust me?)

Over here at the side of your life

(Not that I don't trust you)

You spend all your hours just rushing around

Do you have a little time to have a little time for me? As soon as I leave the house you wanna page me See you got me trapped I'm going crazy this is slavery

You act like it's outrageous give me space it won't get better

And maybe we will argue and be through with all these sorry letters

Soon as I come home it's like I get the third degree

Where ya been and who you with? I get no room to breathe

It makes me wanna leave, I'm sick of these tricks up your sleeve

Your suspicious I deceive give me grief without beliefBut to me, if you really trust me then it's pitiful

Question me about my whereabouts that's so trivial

Let me live my life and you can live yours

Just be there to help me and support that's what your here for

Not to give me stress and add to pressure

Home is where I go the rest I go to pass the test

I'm sorry if I left you all alone

But I couldn't make it home so we argue on the phone, don't you trust me?You should stop for awhile, you will find me standing by

(Don't you trust me?)

Over here at the side of your life

(Not that I don't trust you)

You spend all your hours just rushing around

Do you have a little time to have a little time for me?

(Not that I don't trust you) Callin' up my house to hang it up you think that makes sense

Tell me what it takes for us to shake so we can be friends

It's time for us to take our separate paths

We had a lot of laughs but the good things come to pass

Let's think of the evil break don't make it scandalous

Try to be mature 'til your sure that we can handle this

Your sayin' I'm too busy I ignore you

I guess you didn't hear me when I said that I cared for youBut now it seems the arguments are nightly

I wanna hold you tightly but instead you wanna fight me

So why let it stress and aggravate me?

Instead I'd rather break hope you don't hate me

You tell me that you love me but your lyin'

Fightin' back the urge to start cryin'

I wipe away your tears come and hug me

I love you like you love me, girl, don't you trust me?You should stop for awhile, you will find me standing by

(Don't you trust me?)

Over here at the side of your life

(Not that I don't trust you)

You spend all your hours just rushing around

Do you have a little time to have a little time for me?

(Not that I don't trust you)I hangup the phone, I can't barely hear you yellin' at me

Maybe we should end it neither one of us are happy

You know that I'm emotional you milk me

Comin' over crying just to get me feelin' guilty

You and me were met to be it yet

You always wanna sweat and how much closer can we get, don't fret

Just set me back my things and I'll be outie

This time I'm breakin' out you let your mouth overcrowd meI can't take the beefin' and the griefin'

I get no room to sleep I hope it ceases 'cause I'm leavin'

Maybe next time you'll be a little more sure

When I can give you more when you unsure

But baby until then I gotta leave ya

It's not that I don't need va but see va

And I hope that you understand why I bust it

Not becuase we rushed it, but girl don't you trust me? You should stop for awhile, you will find me standing by

(Don't you trust me?)

Over here at the side of your life

(Not that I don't trust you)

You spend all your hours just rushing around

Do you have a little time to have a little time for me?Not that I don't trust you

Don't you trust me?

Not that I don't trust you

Don't you trust me?

Not that I don't trust you
