Macho Island

Geneva Jacuzzi

Watching you fade into blue
You drift away, so far away
Iâ€™m searching for you on an Island
In an endless day

But these eyes no longer guide me
And thoughts lead me astray
The ocean swallows up every night
Before we washed up on the bay

Itâ€™s a funny way to find, youâ€™re frozen in time
So lonely when you find, youâ€™re frozen in time

The burning sun will light the stage
You last the shadows of castaways
It leads me to the shore
For the final; act on the ocean floor

~On a bed at the bottom of a watery grave
Two lovers lay under, holding each other tight
Hidden from the moon, hidden from the sun
In the island tomb of love lost forever~

Itâ€™s a funny way to find, youâ€™re frozen in time
So lonely when you find, youâ€™re frozen in time

Where is the island? Am I the island?
Is it my island? Are you the island?
You are the island.
