This and That

Acid House Kings

Do you understand?
This might be the perfect start
Something pure in you
No more late night television hours
Or sleepless mornings
I'm looking forward to the change

I imagine this
I imagine that
Never really follow through
Why don't I do this?
Why don't I do that?
No one understands my intentions
No one ever understands me

Why can't I ever be the one to follow
Not the one who follows
Why can't I ever get
The attention I need
The attention that I miss
Well I would like to

I imagine this
I imagine that
Never really follow through
Why don't I do this?
Why don't I do that?
No one understands my intentions
No one ever understands me
