

Mystica

The Blood Divine

I've been embraced
I'm so blessed
That I have eyes to see such a treasure
As is youMystica, I believe youI cannot imagine
To not see you one more time
I'd miss your smile
I'd miss your eyes
So I thank the fates that I'm not blindMystica, I believe you
Will you believe me?Even when empowered
By the graceful light of a Nubian dawn
When I turn to meet your gaze
I know that you are the oneThat you are the one
Who can comfort me and ease me
From idle misery help to...Take me away to your world of blissful dreams...
Release me, release me from painI've been embraced
I'm so blessed
That I have eyes to see such a treasure
As is youMystica, I believe you
Will you believe me?
