Shut Up

Toxic Lab Rats

Waking up tired with my girl next to me
Fumbling when I dress still I try to look tight
Work is calling but my dreams are coming back to me
Smiling, sad as Iâ€™m running for my ride

Coffee in my right hand the paperâ€™s in my left
The suits are staring back at me
I know what they would say
Iâ€™m for sure not the person sitting right beside you
Thereâ€™s someone else inside but Iâ€™m playing my charade

Stacking papers in the office â€™til it breaks up
Switching off
Iâ€™m trying to stay nice
Colleagues laughing, well Iâ€™m getting pissed off
Iâ€™m ready to go home but weâ€™re right before lunch

Donâ€™t talk, donâ€™t talk to me
Cause I know what you will say
So shut your mouth and stay away

No one seems to bother about getting their stuff done
Hey itâ€™s your shit donâ€™t waste it on me
Iâ€™m slowly breaking up soon Iâ€™ll kick your face in Consider what I say and stay away

Donâ€™t talk, donâ€™t talk to me
Cause I know what you will say
So shut your mouth and stay away
