Two Hearts

Paper Route

Every circle was a line
Just connected by design
Every part of this reminding me how your heart met mine
And every time, when

You want I ail take you home
And you'll play with the radio

I need you know you are the only one that I'll ever love
Just look what's been done, two hearts beat as one
It's never easy but the two are now one
Just look what's been done, two hearts beat as one
I know, you know

If the heart is heaven
Tell me would the mind then be hell?
And if I get too heavy for ya let me know cause I can't tell
The jar and bell, well

If you want I can take you home
And you'll sing to the radio

I need you know you are the only one that I'll ever love
Just look what's been done, two hearts beat as one
It's never easy but the two are now one
Just look what's been done, two hearts beat as one
I know, you know

I will never need again
I am infinite
I won't forget the moment
I felt the whole earth cave in love
Two hearts,
Two hearts'

You just sing, and I'll take you home
I'll take you home, now
I need you to know.
