

Cross My Heart

Michael W. Smith

Ink and paper, epic offers
Glass moon waltzing on the waters
Horse and carriage, I am courting my marriage
Of dreams in the wings of visions unseen
Cross my heart, only Your love will do
Cross my heart over You
I will cross my heart, there is room enough for two
Cross my heart over You, over You
Cross my heart
Cross my heart
Cross my heart
Inside, feels like there's a thunder
Spellbound, now You've take me under
Gold and diamond ever saying that
I'm in this forevermore, You can be sure
Cross my heart, only Your love will do
Cross my heart over You
I will cross my heart, there is room enough for two
Cross my heart over You, over You
Gold and diamond ever saying that
I'm in this forevermore, You can be sure
Cross my heart, only Your love will do
Cross my heart over You
I will cross my heart, there is room enough for two
Cross my heart over You
