

Sweet Saturn Mine (a Sean Lennon De-mix)

The Moonlandingz

Matter, matter, matter everywhere
Not one bit of that matter matters to me
Except the matter that matters on the mattress
Where the milk of life runs fresh and clean
Peeling back a tender flesh of flesh
Rolling down your idiot smile for a while
Digging out a brand new hole
Riding in glee as my milk fills up the bowl
Sweet Saturn mine
(sweet Saturn mine)
I don't feel alright
(I don't feel alright)
I don't feel alright
(I don't feel alright)
I don't feel alright
(I don't feel alright)
(I don't feel alright) I swear to God an hour, every one of yours is mine
Before you go and overdose on truth
Well cool it baby, spit it out, I'll show you what to do
Surrender now, the pain will never cease
Surrender now and you can share your sweet cream with me
I could be a vessel for your shame
I'm down on my knees begging baby do the same
Sweet Saturn mine
(sweet Saturn mine)
I don't feel alright
(I don't feel alright)
I don't feel alright
(I don't feel alright)
I don't feel alright
(I don't feel alright)
I don't feel alright
(I don't feel alright)
