Freedom Day

Magnum

Listen to me
Liberty denied
Searching into the deep
Looking far and wide
Endless talking
Nothing much to hide
No sense asking the way
No one on your sideDont look back
When your lifes an empty page
Keep on track
Dont get filled with rage
So take it somewhere
Living your life, breathing in the airSing for the human race
Louder than oceans roar
Sing till your voices break
Till you cant sing no more
Dark thoughts will fly
Into the clouds passing us by
Shout for your freedom yell
And they will hear the chorus
Bang on your freedom bell
They wouldnt dare ignore us
Into the flame
Out of the earth, nothing shall remainCold wind blowing
One and twenty lies
Healers healing
The truth with sympathetic eyes
Rainbows over
Naked and exposed
Midnight, lost in the dark
Paradise is closedDont look back
When your lifes an empty page
Keep on track
Dont get filled with rage
So take it somewhere
Living your life, breathing in the airSing for the human race
Louder than oceans roar
Sing till your voices break
Till you cant sing no more

Dark thoughts will fly
Into the clouds passing us by
Shout for your freedom yell
And they will hear the chorus
Bang on your freedom bell
They wouldnt dare ignore us
Out of the earth, nothing shall remainSing for the human race
Out of the earth, nothing shall remain
