Who Cares

Sam Brown

We're all fighting a battle
We're singing the same song
Trying to find someone who cares as much as we do
We're all climbing the ladder
While we're sinking in this boat
Trying to find someone who caresOh, I'm letting go 'cause she'll never know
How I feel, this is real
And oh, she'll never see so I'll leave her be
To find someone who cares as much as I do
Oh no, no, no, no I'm letting goWe're all breaking the silence
We'll step up to the plate
Trying to be someone who blends in with the crowd
Oh, we're all taking the tough road for Lord only knows
Never questioning why we hesitate to say goodbyeOh, I'm letting go 'cause she'll never know
How I feel, this is real
And oh, she'll never see so I'll leave her be
To find someone who cares as much as I do
Oh no, no, no, no I'm letting goOh, I'm letting go
Oh, she'll never knowOh, I'm letting go 'cause she'll never know (how I feel)
And she'll never see so I'll leave her be (to find someone, alright)
Oh, I'm letting go 'cause she'll never know (how I feel tonight)
She'll never see so I'll leave her be to find someone who cares as much as I do
