

Kelsey (Justin Sane Kyle Bourke Club Edit)

Metro Station

So take one word you said
You put it in your bed
You rest your tiny head on your pillow
You wonder where you're going next
You got your head pushed to my chest
And now you're hoping that someone let's you in Well I sure'll let you in
You know I'll you in
Oh Kelsey, you So don't let anyone scare you
You know that I'll protect you
Always now through the thick and thin
Until the end
You better watch it
You know you don't cross it because
I'm always here for you
And I'll be here for you
I know, I know, I know
I know how it feels believe me
I've been there
I know, I know, I know
I know what it feels like
Tell me Kelsey I'll swim the ocean for you
The ocean for you
Whoa, oh Kelsey
And I'll swim the ocean for you
Swim the ocean for you
Whoa, oh Kelsey
Yeah It's gonna to get harder
And it's gonna to burn brighter
And it's gonna to feel tougher each and every day
So let me say that I love you
You're all that I've ever wanted
All that I've ever dreamed of to come
And yes you did come
I want you so bad
Can you feel it too?
You know I'm so, I'm so in love you
I want you for so much
I need you for so much

I need you, I need you, your touch I'll swim the ocean for you

The ocean for you

Whoa, oh Kelsey

You never let me in

You never let me in I'll swim the ocean for you

The ocean for you

Whoa, oh Kelsey

You never let me in

You never let me in I'll swim the ocean for you

The ocean for you

Whoa, oh Kelsey

You never let me in

You never let me in I'll swim the ocean for you

The ocean for you

Whoa, oh Kelsey

You never let me in
