monique

NumÃ©ro#

When they see Monique
Perhaps they'll understandMonique, Monique
I've hungered so for this
Monique, Monique
The wonder of your kissMonique, Monique
Was Paris always there
Monique, Monique
I didn't know or careBut why am I dancing
My friends may well demand
I'll tell them Monique
Monique held my handAnd when they see Monique
Perhaps they'll understandMonique, Monique
Was Paris always there
Monique, Monique
I didn't know or careBut why am I dancing
My friends may well demand
I'll tell them Monique
Monique held my handWhen they see Monique
I'm sure they'll understand
