

monique

NumÃ©ro#

When they see Monique
Perhaps they'll understand
Monique, Monique
I've hungered so for this
Monique, Monique
The wonder of your kiss
Monique, Monique
Was Paris always there
Monique, Monique
I didn't know or care
But why am I dancing
My friends may well demand
I'll tell them Monique
Monique held my hand
And when they see Monique
Perhaps they'll understand
Monique, Monique
Was Paris always there
Monique, Monique
I didn't know or care
But why am I dancing
My friends may well demand
I'll tell them Monique
Monique held my hand
When they see Monique
I'm sure they'll understand
