

There's Always Room On the Broom

Liars

May the 1st
Made sandwiches and wrapped them up
Time to grab a broom
Oh, what a moon Took a sip
Then found ourselves on Brocken Cliff
Dance for years
On Devil's tears They disappear
I alone Spider web from my leg to my head
Dragon's egg in the cavern
Samurai, in the book's end
Donkey's cry for the water [Incomprehensible] I say you're gonna get it in a second on my word
Gonna put it on a dog and you'll win it
You'll learn it from the wolves and he'll make it with a cat
And they'll wanna understand so they kill it In summer, won't we wanna
Be in school with everyone?
Somehow we're ordinary
Until we get more damage done I say you're gonna get it in a second on my word
Gonna put it on a dog and you'll win it
You'll learn it from the wolves and he'll make it with a cat
And they'll wanna understand so they kill it In summer, won't we wanna
Be in school with everyone?
Somehow we're ordinary
Until we get more damage done
