Everything You Thought You Had

Cloud Cult

Everything you thought you had.
It was only passing through.
Everything you thought you knew
Knew you... better than you do
We were made to watch and wonder.
Though some days I can't get out of my head.
And I was scared of getting older.Everything I wished I'd done.
And everything I wish I'd undo.
Everything that broke my heart,
Can't keep me from loving you.Pray that inner light gonna make us blind.
Lead me to where I need to be.
We're not scared to lose our minds.
Cuz that's when we'll be what we're supposed to be.Everyone here has got a shadow.
And everyone has their share of hurt.
When I'm dead, I'll be a rainbow.
What you were is what you're worth.
