Trouble in My Brain

Sunnyboys

Tell me that it's true
My love is not for gain
Tell me that you knew
All our tears have been in vain
Oh
What's a poor man suppose to do
My love is not for gain
Help me to forget
My love has held me up
Oh...
Got a trouble in my brain
Well everyone around me Is going insane
What for the captain and his team?
The dark clouds hanging over his head
It's been so long since I
Have had no peace
I was always ill at ease
I feel the pressure of my dreams
I say, oh
Got a trouble in my brain
Well everyone around me Is going insane
What for the captain, and his team?
The dark clouds hanging over his head
Got a trouble in my brain
Well everyone around me is going insane
What for the captain and his team
The dark clouds hanging over his head
Oh...
