Makin' Love

Poco

I wish I could say
All my fears fall away
With the sands in the hourglass
But you know it ain't soI'm holdin' on tight
'Cause I know when it's right
There'll be a woman
Burnin' in my soulDon't you know I can feel it, feel it deep inside
Pretty soon you'll find it showin' in my eyes
I can't keep from feelin' you and I were meant for
Makin' loveYou're on my mind
And it seems that I'm
Thinkin' of moments
Alone with youHard as it seems
You can see what it means
Woman you know I'm
Losin' my heartDon't you know I can feel it, feel it deep inside
Pretty soon you'll find it showin' in my eyes
I can't keep from feelin' you and I were meant for
Makin' loveI can feel it, feel it deep inside
Pretty soon you'll find it showin' in my eyes
I can't keep from feelin' you and I were meant for
Makin' loveDon't you know I can feel it, feel it deep inside
Pretty soon you'll find it showin' in my eyes
