Vertigo

American Hi-Fi

I need a bigger mood to block out the sun I don't wanna see what I've become and you could fight your way give back what you really want it's nothing special anywaychorus:
yeah you're always in my way I'm falling faster everyday yeah you're always in my way I gotta spit you out
you bring me down
everything just crashes to the ground cause you were always in my wayI can feel a brake a bruise from another day it's hard to say just what I feel it all seems broken now when I'm stuck on the in between staring at something out of reachrepeat chorusgo!yeah you're always in my way
cause you were always in my way
yeah
