My Fair Lady

David Byrne

I need someone to show a little kindness
If he can turn his hat, a little blindness
I know that I might seem a little nameless
And I can also be a little shameless
Do you know the way, I'm from out of town
I need a place to stay, someone to show me all around
A box of chocolates and a dozen flowers
Just a little mood to sit and think for hours and hours
I will take it all with little grains of salt
I make anything feel less like what it's not Just say everything as if it's not been heard
I will listen hard, I'm hearing every word
Do you know the way, I'm from out of town
I need a place to stay, someone to show me all around
A box of chocolates and a dozen flowers
Just a little mood to sit and think for hours and hours
Do you know the way, I'm from out of town
I need a place to stay, someone to show me all around
A box of chocolates and a dozen flowers
Just a little mood to sit and think for hours and hours
Box of chocolates and a dozen flowers
Just a little mood to sit and think for hours and hours and
