Repossession

Municipal Waste

We take, without a care...just waiting to claim our share.
No thought of what is fair or unfair
No chance to escape or time to negotiate
We'll come, storming in, just take!
It's called repossession, stealing your life...all that you work for.
Violently taken without a warning....there's no way to ignore!
It's called repossession, and we got the goods....and soon we'll have all yours.
We'll take all your money, all your belongings, and all you can fend for.
If you get ripped off by some low life you know
Just pay us and we'll do the rest
We'll take your shit back and make sure that he knows
He shouldn't have fucked with the best
We take, without a care...just waiting to claim our share.
No thought of what is fair or unfair
No chance to escape or time to negotiate
We'll come, storming in, just take!
If you need some help with retrieving your goods or just want to get someone back
Just hire "The Waste" and we'll make sure that they regret they ever crossed your path.
It's called repossession, stealing your life...all that you work for.
Violently taken without a warning....there's no way to ignore!
It's called repossession, and we got the goods....and soon we'll have all yours.
We'll take all your money, all your belongings, and all you can fend for.
We take, without a care...just waiting to claim our share.
No thought of what is fair or unfair
No chance to escape or time to negotiate
We'll come, storming in, just take!
