Sensory Eraser

Finger Eleven

It's always gonna be the same
And the memories never change
When I think about you
And even though I know you're gone
You're all I hold ontoIf I keep looking back
It's a past that never ends
I know you're a liar
I know you and truth
Just can't be friendsSense
Sensory
Sensory eraser
Sense
Sensory
Sensory eraserThe stories you try
To sell cover all
The dirt so well
Just so I think about you
Move forward with eyes ahead
But the way I remember it
There's something to come around toBut if I keep looking back
It's a past that never ends
I know you're a liar
I know you and truth just can't be friendsSense
Sensory
Sensory eraser
Sense
Sensory
Sensory eraserBut if I keep looking back
It's a past that never ends
I know you're a liar I know you
And truth just can't be friends
I know you're a liar I know you
And truth just can't be friendsSense
Sensory
Sensory eraser
Sense
Sensory
Sensory eraser
Sense

Sensory
Sensory eraser
Sense
Sensory
Sensory eraser
