Never Know

Jack Johnson

I heard this old story before
Where the people keep on killing for their metaphors, but Don't leave much up to the imaginationSo I wanna give this imagery back
I know it just ain't so easy like that
So, I turn the page and read the story again
And again and againIt just seems the same, with a different name
We're breaking and rebuilding and we're growing
Always guessing never knowingShocking but we're nothing we're just moments
We're clever but we're clueless we're just human Amusing but confusing. We're trying
But where is this all leading we'll never knowIt all happened so much faster than you could say disaster
Wanna take a time lapse and look at it backwards
From the last one and maybe that's just the answer
That we're afterBut after all we're just a bubble in a boiling pot
Just one breath in a chain of thought
The moments just combusting
Feel certain but we'll never never knowJust seems the same, give it a different name
We're beggin' and we're needing and we're trying
And we're breathing never knowingShocking but we're nothing we're just moments
We're clever but we're clueless we're just human Amusing but confusing helping
We're buildin' and we're growing never know
Never know, never knowKnock knock on the door to door
Tell that the metaphor is better than yours
And you can either sink or swim
Things are looking pretty grimIf you don't believe in what this one feeding
It's got no feeling so I read it again
And again and again just seems the same
Too many different namesOur hearts are strong our hands are weak
We'll always be competing never knowing
Never knowingShocking but we're nothing we're just moments
We're clever but we're clueless we're just human Amusing but confusing but the truth is
All we got is questions we'll never know
Never know, never know
