Confines Of Gravity

PlayRadioPlay!

As I exhale, I think of questions to ask myself
What's your plan? Do you think you're a man?
Has your small amount of success gone to your head yet?I wanna be an astronaut and get high
Break the barrier of sound into the sky
Just wanna be free from the confines of gravityAs I take it all in, the altitude has an effect on my skin
I grow a space suit in the blink of an eye
And shortly after the atmosphere comes to lifeI wanna be an astronaut and get
I wanna be an astronaut and get
I wanna be an astronaut and get
I wanna be an astronaut and get highI wanna be an astronaut and get high
Break the barrier of sound into the sky
Just wanna be free from the confines of gravityPrepare for landing as we come back to earth
Prepare for landing as we come back to earth
Prepare for landing as we come back to earth
Prepare for landing as we come back to earthI wanna be an astronaut and get high
Break the barrier of sound into the sky
Just wanna be free from the confines of gravityI wanna be an astronaut and get higher, oh
I wanna be an astronaut and get higher, oh
