

Black and White

The Shires

You were given two eyes,
So you got perspective.
You were given two ears,
So you hear it from both sides. But you only got one heart,
It only knows one way to love.
When you find the one,
Suddenly it'll all add up. When it's real love,
You don't have to think twice.
When it's real love,
There's no sacrifice. You just let go, 'cos you know
You've got it made for life,
There's no compromise,
Real love: it's black and white. You put a smile on my face,
You always get me through,
You paint rainbows in the rain:
There'd be no me without you. I've only got one heart,
I only know one way to love, oo
And you're the one
You make everything add up. When it's real love,
You don't have to think twice
When it's real love,
There's no sacrifice. You just let go, 'cos you know
You've got it made for life,
There's no compromise,
Real love: it's black and white. If it's real then it can't be broken
All the words that you leave unspoken
If it's real then you want for nothing
Don't know why but it's just that something. It's the look in your eyes
When you just know
There's no try there's no why
You just let go
Just let go
Just let go. When it's real love,
You don't have to think twice
When it's real love
There's no sacrifice. You just let go 'cos you know
You've got it made for life
There's no compromise. There's no compromise
Real love: it's black and white

It's black and white
