Imaginarium

The Veer Union

Do you remember me?
Do you remember what you've done?
I'll cure your insanity
I'll cure you from everything you areI am
Your end
'Cause you are a cancer made of man
Lost in imaginarium
Now I begin
I am
Your end
But I'll bring you back to life again
You're lost in imaginariumYour insecurities
Made you belive in your own lies
But in reality
We can see right through your disguiseI am
Your end
'Cause you are a cancer made of man
Lost in imaginarium
Now I begin
I am
Your end
But I'll bring you back to life again
You're lost in imaginariumI'll turn your world so upside down
I think your mind
Just might be found
I'll break your walls
All the way down
To little pieces on the groundI am
Your end
'Cause you are a cancer made of man
Lost in imaginarium
Now I begin
I am
Your end
But I'll bring you back to life again
You're lost in imaginariumI'll turn your world so upside down
I think your mind
Just might be found
I'll break your walls

All the way down
To little pieces on the groundI'll turn your world so upside down
I think your mind
Just might be found
I'll break your walls
All the way down
To little pieces on the ground
