We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us victorious
We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us victorious
We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us victorious
We are conquerors, we overcome
The blood of the Lamb makes us conquerors, conquerors
We shall live by our testimony
Live by the word of our Savior
Live to declare His goodness
Live, live
We shall live by our testimony
Live by the word of our Savior
Live to declare His goodness
Live, live
We shall live by our testimony
Live by the word of our Savior
Live to declare to the nations
Better days are here
Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today
Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today
Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today
Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here

We declare it today, declare it today
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
We declare, we declare
Better days are here
No more living in a world of fear
Better days are here
We declare it today, declare it today
Better days
