Finally Falling

Victorious Cast feat. Victoria Justice

Suddenly my choice is clear
I knew it only you and I
Were standing here
And beautiful
Is all I see
It's only you I know it's true
It has to be
Well that money isn't worth a thing
If you didn't earn it
You don't deserve it
True love doesn't cost a thing
And if you try to buy it
You can't return it
(No, no, no, no)
Well
Your friends are doing
All the same things
And my friends say,
"Look at what you're wasting"
But it doesn't matter
If we change their minds
Suddenly
I can see
What I didn't before
And I don't care
What they say anymore
'Cause I'm falling, falling
Finally falling, falling
I don't need all the finer things
Diamond rings and nothin'
So show me something

'Cause love is all I need
All i ever wanted
And now I've got it
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
My friends are wondering
What you're thinking
And your friends probably

Think the same thing
Well it doesn't Matter
If we change their minds
Suddenly
I can see
What I didn't before
And I don't care
What they say anymore
'Cause I'm falling, falling
Finally falling, falling
If you can't find your love
When you're in it
Just forget it
It would change your mind
Once you get it
Don't you get it?
'Cause we did it (Yeah, we did it)
Suddenly
I can see
What I didn't before
And I don't care
What they say anymore
'Cause I'm falling, falling
Finally falling, falling (x2)
