

Lynda

Imaani

I woke up screaming this morning
I sat bolt upright in bed
I saw the red sky dawning
Must have been something I readLynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in loveI don't see no ship going under
Don't hear no pouring rain
Don't hear no lightning and thunder
I just hear the sound of your nameLynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in loveKeep the machinery running
If it ever gets out of hand
You can be my wonder woman
And I'll just be your spider manLynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in loveLynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in loveLynda
