

Had Enough

SX-10

Loneliness

Pacing up and down these hallways

Second guessing every thought

Mystified

Just spinning 'round in circles

Drowning in the silent screaming

With nothing left to say

Every time I reach for you

There's no one there to hold on to

Nothing left for me to miss

I'm letting go, letting go of this

Lost my mind thinking it through

The light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is

I've had enough, had enough of this

I believe

That love should be a reason

To give and get back in return

I wanna breathe

In a new beginning

With someone who will wrap her arms

Around what's left of me

Every time I reach for you

There's no one there to hold on to

Nothing left for me to miss

I'm letting go, letting go of this

Lost my mind thinking it through

The light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is

I've had enough, had enough of this

Inside I'm barely holding on

There's something that's already gone

Inside of me the world is in this all alone

Every time I reach for you

There's no one there to hold on to

Nothing left for me to miss

I'm letting go of this

Lost my mind thinking it through

The light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this
Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go, letting go of this
Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this
I've had enough, had enough of this
