Halo

New End Original

I could go to the middle of the desert,
I could go to there all alone.
I could sit for hours,
I could fast for weeks.
I'll never know what you know.Chorus:
I'll give you all the water,
give everything that matters.
And when the world is full,
I'll give you all the spaces.
I'll give you all of the time.
You've got a halo (x3)
hanging above your head.You're as young and as old as the ocean.
You smile and skies unfold.
And the wind and heaven are still and solid.
You've got an unearthly glow.(chorus)
