Release

Evalyn Awake

Was it hard?
To tell me why
why You couldn't even look me in my eyes don't walk away
don't be afraid
I will show you all these things you've never seen You've only dreamed of I will give you what You need what You need is what you need an that's release From all these demons that I see and all your sickness killing me It's killing me

Just for fun
You play your games
but I don't have to tell the story or the names
It's not the time
nor the place
burning bridges
burn these memories in vain take away this pain relieve me from theses chains that have bound me to you, ohh I beg you please oh yeahhhh
as my heart begins to bleed heart begins to bleed someone help me, someone help me I need release
from all this demons that I see
and all your sickness killing me
It's killing me

I need release
from all this demons that I see
And all your sickness killing me
It's killing me

It's killing me
