

Piece of Clay

Marvin Gaye

Father stop criticizing your son
Mother please leave your daughters alone
Don't you see that's what wrong
With the world with world todayEverybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clay
Everybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clayWe all talked about Candice
But it's only, only a word, truly
Brother turned on a sister in this cruel, cruel world
That's what's wrong with all in this world todayEverybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clay
Oh, everybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clay
Somebody to play with
Wanna to mold you, mold you
Shake your love baby
Wanna to do their thingChildren are told
To give and not just to take
If we were all children
You know the world will be a better placeOh, everybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clayWe should all love each other
Love and take one another
We should love each other
Love and not hate, ohEverybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clay
Everybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clay
Truly everybody wants somebody
To mold them, shape them own way
Everybody wants somebody
Try to make it or, do their, do their thingEverybody wants to take somebody
Got to make it, make it do their thing
Everybody wants somebody
To be their own piece of clay, yeahSomebody, somebody
Own piece of claySomebody, somebody
Somebody, somebody, somebody
Somebody, somebody
Somebody, somebody, somebody

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>