

Dan Croll

It could be more than just seeing you
 It could be more than I hold onto
 'Cause my minds now tear away
 With a thought that I hope isn't true
 Hey, I wanna feel the same
 But I've gotta wait a weekend
 Or I've gotta settle down while I can So please, don't let it be a heart attack
 I'm facing more than just twenty four
 Heaven knows I'm wanting more
 It could be more than what meets the eye
 'Cause what I'm feeling I feel inside
 And my heart can't take it
 So you're gonna have to reach in and pry
 It could be more than just being me
 Losing faith in what I could be
 'Cause my minds now tear away
 With thoughts I hoped I never would see
 Hey, I wanna feel same
 As I did when I was younger
 With a mind that was easy to tame So please, don't let it be a heart attack
 I'm facing more than just twenty four
 Heaven knows I'm wanting more
 So please, don't let it be a heart attack
 I'm facing more than just twenty four
 Heaven knows what for
 It could be more than what meets the eye
 'Cause what I'm feeling I feel inside
 And my heart can't take it
 So you're gonna have to reach in and pry
 It could be more than what meets the eye
 'Cause what I'm feeling I feel inside
 And my heart can't take it
 So you're gonna have to reach in and pry
