

My Love Will Never Die

Robben Ford

You've done me wrong for a long, long time
And all you've done still never changed my mind so please,
Try to love me please baby, try my love for you will never die
These flowers grow where I lay and rest
And these colored blossoms darling, hold to your breast
And darling I know it's my mind breaking out from inside my love for you will never die
