

That's What Love Can Do

Pamela

I wanted a lover to show me the way love goes
To know what it felt like, to let something take control
To live the expression, I'm head over heels this time
Unafraid to be open and thinking I'd be just fine
But I found the very end that it all depends
'Cause love can lift you so high
Or it'll leave you to die
And it's not like you ever get to choose
(Which way that it leads you)
Ooh, it can play with your mind
Or make you feel so alive
Either way you'll survive
'Cause that's what love can do
Ohh, yeah yeah, that's what love can do
I guess now I get why
They say love is a dangerous game
'Cause when you think that you're winning
You find out that you just been been played
You give and you sacrifice
You make changes in your life
Everyone's got advice but no one's got a clue
(Not even you)
And I found in the very end that it all depends
'Cause love can lift you so high
Or it'll leave you to die
And it's not like you ever get to choose

(Which way that it leads you)
Ooh, it can play with your mind
Or make you feel so alive
Either way you'll survive
'Cause that's what love can do
Ooh, ohh, ooh, that's what love can do
I'm dreaming, I'm dreaming
Dreaming of when I believed in fairy tales
Sunset sails, it never fails, till reality sets in
I begin to comprehend how crazy this has been
And I can't depend on anyone
For my happily ever after, yeah, yeah

'Cause love can lift you so high
Or it'll leave you to die
And it's not like you ever get to choose
(Which way that it leads you)
Ooh, it can play with your mind
Make you feel so alive
Either way you'll survive 'cause, ohh
That's what love can do
That's what love can do, ohh
'Cause that's what love can do, oh yeah
Ohh ooh, hey, it can tear you apart
And it's broken, broken my heart
That's what love can do, ooh
