Faith When I Fall

Kip Moore

Faith When I Fall
I know its been a long time since the last time we talked.
I know I?ve been a stranger
and thats all my fault.
And asking you for anything
don?t really seem right.
But the winds of change are blowing
So I?m begging you tonight.
Give me love, when I aint got nobody.
A little hope, when I aint got none at all.
Give me light, up ahead on the journey.
Give me strength when Im standing, and faith when I fall.
I know the rain is coming
and its sure gonna pour.
I know there aint no runnin
from this kind of storm

its gonna get harder and harder to keep on pushing through.
Im gonna want to quit
so I?ll be countin on you.
Give me love, when I ain?t got nobody.
A little hope, when I aint got none at all.
Give me light, up ahead on the journey.
Give me strength when Im standing, and faith when I fall.
And when the clouds start parting
and the sun starts shining through.
This time I wont forget,
I wont forget about you.
Give me love, when I aint got nobody.
A little hope, when I aint got none at all.
Give me light, up ahead on the journey.
Give me strength when Im standing, and faith when I fall.
Give me strength when I?m standing and faith when I fall.
