

Pretty White Lies

Jason Zhang

I'm going out of my mind thinking you gonna leave
So if there is doubt put me out my misery
I know there something you're not telling me
Are you falling out of love love love loveLate night taxi ride
On my way to make it right
Tell me what I got to do
Drunk high starting fires
Always need to compromise
Everybody knows but youSo tell me I have lost my touch
Is it fading girl.
Tired of waiting girl on you
Baby have you given up.
Where are you hiding girl.
Sick of trying girl for you
I'm going out of my mind thinking you gonna leave
So if there is doubt put me out my misery
I know there something you're not telling me
Are you falling out of love love love loveWhen you go out every night are you thinking of me
Just tell me now put me out of my misery
Just show me something that I can believe
Have you fallen out of love love love loveMaybe I'm paranoid.
I should just ignore the voice
Screaming out inside my brain
Maybe I think too much
Maybe I self destruct
I could be the one to blame
So tell me I have lost my touch
Is it fading girl.
Tired of waiting girl on you
Baby have you given up.
Where are you hiding girl.
Sick of trying girl for youI'm going out of my mind thinking you gonna leave
So if there is doubt put me out my misery
I know there something you're not telling me
Are you falling out of love love love loveWhen you go out every night are you thinking of me
Just tell me now put me out of my misery
Just show me something that I can believe
Have you fallen out of love love love loveYour pretty white lies just sound like excuses
You pretty white lies are leading me on

That look in your eyes is making me lose it
Are you falling out of love love love love I'm going out of my mind thinking you gonna leave
So if there is doubt put me out my misery
I know there something you're not telling me
Are you falling out of love love love love When you go out every night are you thinking of me
Just tell me now put me out of my misery
Just show me something that I can believe
Have you fallen out of love love love love love
