Won't Catch Me Cryin'

Willie Nelson

You won't catch me cryin' over you
I think I'm leavin' after all I've been through
Pardon me, if I love you endlessly
But you've got wounds that I can't moveI won't be not sleepin' over you
If I'm sleepin' far away from you
I know you think you need me
But once you had and couldn't keep me
Isn't this the same ground we've been through?You won't catch me cryin' over you
(Won't catch me cryin')
(Won't catch me cryin' over you)You won't catch me cryin' over you
After all the things you put me through
I need to be somewhere with room to breathe
I need a heart that don't need youYou won't catch me cryin' over you
(Won't catch me cryin')
(Won't catch me cryin' over you)You won't catch me cryin' over you
After all this work that you gave me to do
Pardon me, if I love you endlessly
You've got wounds that I can't moveYou won't catch me cryin' over you
You won't catch me cryin'
You won't catch me cryin'
You won't catch me cryin' over you
