

Losers (feat. Labrinth)

The Weeknd

[Verse 1: The Weeknd]

Only losers go to school
I taught myself how to move
I'm not the type to count on you
Because stupid's next to "I love you"[Hook: The Weeknd]

No? So what can you show me
That my heart don't know already

We make our own sense
And you're qualified to me

What can you show me
That my heart don't know where it is

We make our own sense
And you're qualified

And you're qualified[Verse 2: Labrinth]

Only losers go to school
They can't teach what they can't prove
Come put this inside a test-tube
Because stupid's next to "I love you"[Hook 2: Labrinth]

So what can you show me
That my heart don't know already?

We make our own sense
You're qualified to me

What can you show me
That my heart don't know already?

We make our own sense

You're qualified to me[The Weeknd]

And you're qualified to me[Bridge: The Weeknd]

And now that we're all grown up
Who do we owe it to?

And now that we've gone this far
Who do we owe it all to?

We did it all alone

Now we're coming for the throne
We did it all alone

Now we're coming for the throne
And now that we all came up

Do we lose? Do we lose?[Hook: The Weeknd]

So what can you show me
That my heart don't know already?

Because we make our own sense
And you're qualified to me
What can you show me
That my heart don't know already?
Because we make our own sense
And you're qualified to me
And you're qualified to me
