Edward

Sara Hickman

Edward can I borrow your coat
Edward can I borrow your hat
Through an open door I see
Rain about to wash my fallen heart cleanAnd edward can I borrow your smile
Oh I'd like to take it home and try it out for awhile
I'm sitting in a room
Where the smell of you is still upon my fingersOhhh it's news to me how we came to be
That you and I could ever be together
I wasn't even looking
But now I'm jumping up and down
A thousand kisses waiting here for youInstOhhh it's news to me how we came to be
That you and I could ever be together
I wasn't even looking
But now I'm jumping up and down
A thousand kisses waiting here for youEdward will you hold my hand
I'd like to grow old with you I'd like to understand
Why some things have to change
And some things stay the same
Either way I'm here
Beside you
Inside you
