

Rainbow Colours

Maarja

Two hours since you went away
Already feels like seven days
I can't say that I'm unhappy though
I just hate it when you have to goIf it's one in a million
It's a race against time
It's a case of who's winning
Some of us lose but I findYou are my rainbow colors
When the autumn brings me rain
Giving me rainbow colors
Love is born againYou are my rainbow colors
Like the light upon my way
Giving me rainbow colors
Every night and day'Cause love is hard to find
And who can say you're mine?
Yes, love is hard to find
'Cause you, everything is youAnd love is hard to find
And who can say you're mine?
Yes, love is hard to find
And all you do is for me and youDon't need some high society
Or any kind of misery
All things I ever dreamt to own
Is right here when you're coming homeIf it's one in a million
You will always be mine
It's a case of who's winning
Some of us lose but I findYou are my rainbow colors
When the autumn brings me rain
Giving me rainbow colors
Love is born againYou are my rainbow colors
Like the light upon my way
Giving me rainbow colors
Every night and day'Cause love is hard to find
And who can say you're mine?
Yes, love is hard to find
'Cause you, everything is youAnd love is hard to find
And who can say you're mine?
Yes, love is hard to find
All you do is for me and youIf it's one in a million
It's a race against time
It's a case of who's winning

Some of us lose but I find You are my rainbow colors
When the autumn brings me rain
Giving me rainbow colors
Love is born again You are my rainbow colors
Like the light upon my way
Giving me rainbow colors
Every night and day 'Cause love is hard to find
And who can say you're mine?
Yes, love is hard to find
'Cause you, everything is you And love is hard to find
And who can say you're mine?
Yes, love is hard to find
All you do is for me and you
